

Perrot Memorial Library Wireless Network and Loanable Technology Terms of Service

Please note: The Perrot Memorial Library (the "Library") is an independent non-profit, 501(c)(3) institution, founded and operated by the Perrot Library Association and governed by its Board of Directors. Although the Library collaborates with the Greenwich Library system—sharing a catalog, circulation system, reciprocal borrowing privileges, and online digital resources—it is not operated by the Town of Greenwich (TOG) or its public libraries. Accordingly, neither the TOG nor the Greenwich public library system assumes responsibility for any obligations, contracts or other agreements entered into by the Perrot Memorial Library unless expressly agreed in writing.

The Perrot Memorial Library (the "Library") wireless network and loanable technology devices are designed to serve the community. Access to these services is completely at the discretion of the Library Director and staff. - Actions that may lead to liability for the Library
- Disruption of access to other users
- Violation of applicable laws or regulations.

The Library may revise these Terms of Service at any time, and it is the responsibility of the user to review it for any changes each time.

NO network communication should be considered private or protected. All communication over Library-owned technology is subject to monitoring. Additionally, media and material stored in the Library's networks environment are subject to disclosure under Connecticut's Freedom of Information Law. By using the wireless network and/or loanable technology, the user accepts these Terms of Service.

Parents and guardians, not the Library or its staff, are responsible for monitoring their children's access to and use of online resources. The Library assumes no responsibility for the content or accuracy of information accessed through the Internet, which may include material that some individuals or parents find objectionable.
